Submissions must represent the actual artwork as closely as possible. Well-done giclees are acceptable. Work should be ready to hang by a wire; no clips, nails, tape squares and other insecure hangers will be accepted. A label should be attached to the back of each artwork listing your name, the title of the work, price, and medium.

Upon delivery, artists will be required to sign a release form giving LVPAC the right to exhibit their work and waiving liability in the event of damage or theft.

If you are shipping artwork, it must be received by April 10. Ship artwork carefully, in a box, with padding. We will return it to you in the same box, only if there is return postage by label or bill of lading from UPS, Fedex, or USPS. LVPAC will not be held responsible for theft of art nor damage during shipping to and from the gallery. Any work that is not picked up within 1 week or is not prepared for return shipping will become the property of LVPAC.

LVPAC does not provide insurance for work that is damaged or stolen.

All work must remain up for the duration of the show. LVPAC will handle all sales and send payment to the artists. If your artwork sells, 75% will go to you, and 25% to the gallery. LVPAC requires artists to complete a W-9 for sales in excess of $600.

LVPAC will make every effort to promote the exhibition through invitations and other forms of publicity. Email images of the show announcement and printed postcards will be available for distribution to artist's personal contacts.

Questions? Please email Anne Giancola at agiancola@lvpac.org.

About the Bankhead Theater

Artist Exhibitions have been held since the theater opened in 2007 and have provided many theatergoers with artful experiences. The Bankhead Theater is a part of the Livermore Valley Performing Arts Center— the heart of a vibrant cultural arts community. www.lvpac.org.

All art sales help to support the Bothwell Arts Center, another arm of the Livermore Performing Arts Center, a not for profit corporation. The Bothwell Arts Center provides affordable studio, rehearsal, classroom and performance space for those who work in, teach or study the arts, and has become an essential and highly valued venue supporting those striving to share the cultural arts with the community. A variety of spaces, including a large auditorium, are available for public and private events that have a cultural arts focus. Meetings, rehearsals, recitals, classes and performances are held here frequently.

Both of the Bothwell sites are arts incubator projects of the Livermore Valley Performing Arts Center (LVPAC), a not-for-profit corporation that also owns and operates the Bankhead Theater. We invite you to explore all of our activities at bothwell.lvpac.org.
